

I strongly oppose the broadband over power line initiative.
The radio signals that are produced over unshielded power lines will destroy radio reception in the high frequency spectrum as we presently know it. Moderate to weak signal reception will be! impossible.

Japan has tried the bpl system and has abandoned it because the rf pollution produced was intolerable.

Sincerely

Robert Tinney, K8LR